

LOCAL GOSSIP

Rev. J. Q. Herrin returned from Mountainair Tuesday.

Dr. C. V. Cheyney was up from Willard yesterday morning.

Mrs. R. S. Garcia arrived yesterday noon from Pinos Wells.

Allen Barrett and Miss Porter of the Herald returned from Santa Fe Tuesday night.

Mrs. Frank Laws and daughters were down from McIntosh Tuesday afternoon taking in the celebration.

H. N. Gaines, forester on the Manzano National Forest, with headquarters at Tajique, was in town yesterday.

Forest Mason entertained a number of his friends at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. H. Minerman on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Geitzler left on Tuesday noon for Albuquerque, where her husband will join her, and together they will proceed to California.

Fred H. Ayers returned from Atlantic City, New Jersey, Tuesday noon, where he has been attending the meetings of the General Presbytery.

Rev. Father Hartmann passed through Estancia Tuesday night on his way to Willard. He returned yesterday noon and will say mass at Lueras Hall this morning at nine o'clock.

J. H. Vanderford came down from the farm west of McIntosh yesterday to get seed beans for Jesse Nation. He reports crops as doing better in his neighborhood than farther this way.

Mrs. Minnie Brumback left for Santa Fe on yesterday noon's train, where she will do stenographic work in the office of Leroy Moore, chief of the Field Division at the Santa Fe Land Office.

Mrs. George Fugatt left Tuesday evening for Datil, N. M., where Mr. Fugatt has been working, having received a message that he had been quite badly hurt.

W. R. Reed was in town a few minutes Tuesday morning from his farm three miles west. He hasn't time to farm the side-walks very long at a time, as he has a crop to care for. He said he would be eating cabbage from the garden within thirty days, and his tomatoes are already in blossom.

Al Hibler, Tony Bocklett and John Duffy left yesterday noon for the upper Pecos on a fishing trip. They claim that their grub stake consisted of a loaf of bread, four slices of bacon and a barrel of whiskey. With such a variety, they ought come home well loaded with fish or otherwise.

W. A. Brumback, U. S. Court Commissioner will look after your Land Office business and do it right.

Don Eugenio Romero went to Las Vegas on the noon train yesterday.

Doc Alexander will begin planting thirty acres of beans today.

H. L. Ortiz, an attorney of Santa Fe was a southbound passenger last night, en route to Willard. After spending a day there on business, he will stop off at Estancia on his return.

Henry Epler and son, Raymond, left Tuesday night for Duran, where they will rush the work on the second story of the six thousand dollar school building being erected there.

Judge E. A. Mann, for F. L. and A. J. Atkinson has filed an appeal from the Probate Court to the District Court of Tarrant County, in the matter of the administration of the estate of M. B. Atkinson, deceased.

A telephone message from Moriarty yesterday morning was to the effect that they had had a splendid shower on Tuesday afternoon, which had effectually lain the dust and wet the ground up in good shape. Farmers in that section are jubilant.

Don Acasio Gallegos, assistant superintendent of Public Instruction, came down from Santa Fe last night, accompanied by his family. They went directly to their homestead near Torreon, where they will spend some time, probably the larger portion of the summer.

Carpenters went to work yesterday morning putting in the floor joist of the Lasater-Jenson building. Adobes are being delivered on the ground for the walls, while two car of brick are waiting to be laid. Word has gone out that the building is to be rushed and within a short time the eyesore of the burned spot will be gone and a fine structure will have taken its place.

Ira L. Ludwick left last night for Duran, after having spent several days here looking after the drilling of the well on his homestead. He had a well down about a hundred and fifty feet deep, but not having sufficient water for irrigation, had a drill placed over the well to drill deeper. In some manner the slush bucket became fastened in the well and there was danger of losing the whole thing. It is thought now that drilling will proceed without further difficulty.
